By deleting subsection (a) from Section 4 and by substituting instead the following language:

(a) FastTrack infrastructure development and training grants from the FastTrack infrastructure development and industrial training fund shall be made only where there is a legally binding commitment by a responsible official in an eligible business for the creation or retention of private sector jobs and private investment, or where, the commissioner of economic and community development determines that such investment will have a direct impact on employment and investment opportunities within a twenty-four (24) month period following the date the grant is awarded.
